Discussion Questions

Date: May 5, 2019 | Scripture: Exodus 33:12-23

1. We live in a culture of “more.” Give some examples of how you see this to be true.
2. What if God told you, “You could have it all, but you won’t have me.” How would you respond? How did Moses respond?
3. God saves us from our sin and so that we might enjoy relationship with him. How might this expand our view of salvation?
4. God wants us to enjoy him because when we do, we bring him glory. What are some specific ways that you can enjoy God that would bring him glory?
5. God wants us to enjoy him because it makes us happy. What are some specific ways that you can enjoy God that would make you happy?
6. God wants us to enjoy him because when we do, we say something powerful to a watching world. What are some specific ways that you can enjoy God that would make the watching world take notice?

The problem with your heart isn't that you want more. It's that you don't want enough. Earthly blessings are beautiful, but they are
weak in comparison
to knowing God.
