My Sermon Notes

Today we are talking about Jesus's I AM Statements. Throughout the Bible, Jesus describes himself to his people so that they may know him better and find comfort and hope!

Draw a picture of the I AM statement we are studying today

What difference does it make in our week that Jesus is this person?

Do you have any other questions or thoughts?

SIDE BY SIDE

The text "I AM." is displayed in large, bold, black letters. The letters are filled with a vibrant, abstract pattern of colors including red, orange, yellow, green, and blue, resembling a colorful, textured surface like marbled paper or a digital art style. A small black dot follows the letter M.
