My Sermon Notes

When we understand how much God loves us, we want to follow him. The book of Proverbs was written to show God's people how to live — not so that he'll love us more, but so we can become more like him!

What does it look like to live wisely according to today's passage? Is this hard or easy for you?

How does Jesus live this out perfectly?

Do you have any questions for your parents or pastor about today's sermon?
