Core Questions

1. What similarities are there in these two parables?
2. Where do the parables differ? Why tell both?
3. What does Jesus teach here about the value of the one?
4. This parable was spoken to religious 'insiders.' Jesus reframes the dynamic from 'insider/outsider' to 'lost/found.' What corrective does this make to common perceptions of faith?

Inward Grace in Action

5. Do you believe that God treasures the lost like this? Both for you and for others who seem unreachable?

Outward Grace in Action

6. If Jesus feels this way about your neighbors, how does this encourage you in evangelism both personally and with your church family?
