HOW YOU CAN GET INVOLVED

PRAY

- For babies' lives to be saved as a result of God's work through CHPC.
- That CHPC continues to be a place where women and men find hope and meet Christ at a pivotal point in their lives.
- For the Lord to strengthen paid and volunteer staff in their difficult work.

GIVE

- Find out more about CHPC's current needs on their website:

SERVE

- Talk to our Director of Mission, Matt Stone (stone@mcleanpres.org) about the next opportunity to serve with our church.
- Contact Jamie Maloney, Volunteer Coordinator with CHPC, at volunteers@chpc.us
- View ongoing volunteer needs and opportunities on their website.

Introduction:

Capitol Hill Pregnancy Center (CHPC) is a non-profit organization offering support to women, men and their families experiencing a crisis pregnancy. Their goal is to provide compassionate care as well as complete, accurate information pertaining to pregnancy and pregnancy options.

About Capitol Hill Pregnancy Center

○ Mission and vision

Capitol Hill Pregnancy Center advances the gospel of Jesus Christ by providing intervention and abortion alternatives for women and men facing crisis pregnancies; prepares and trains parents through education for pregnancy, birth, and beyond; expresses the love of Jesus Christ through emotional support and friendship; and encourages a lifestyle that reflects godly values, especially with regard to sexual behavior. CHPC's services include pregnancy tests, counseling, childbirth classes, material provision, and more.

○ Partnering to share the good news

2010 - present

Our church has been partnering with Capitol Hill Pregnancy Center since 2010.

○ Making a difference

Supporting our partner

Our financial support contributes to material resources for parents and children, medical equipment, staffing, and facilities.
