HOW YOU CAN GET INVOLVED

PRAY

- That many more people would hear about and participate in what Career-Confidence.org has to offer.
- That Career-Confidence.org would not only help job-seekers find jobs, but introduce them to Jesus in meaningful ways.
- That Career-Confidence.org would serve as an on-ramp for job-seekers to get connected to churches and discipleship opportunities.

GIVE

- Consider supporting our partner financially at the Career-Confidence.org's website.

SERVE

- At the end of each Career-Confidence.org's seminar and webinar, someone tells the story of how Jesus changed their life. Reach out to Robert Brandau to share your testimony of how Jesus changed your life at one of their seminars.

Introduction

Career-Confidence.org provides practical training for job-seekers in a complex job market with the hope of sharing the love of Christ.

About Career-Confidence.org

○ Mission and vision

Est. 2009

Career-Confidence.org provides free educational job search seminars and webinars. Led by experienced corporate professionals (such as recruiters and human resource managers) Career-Confidence.org assists job-seekers in exploring work opportunities that fit their gifts and abilities.

○ Partnering to share the good news

Est. 2015 – present

Our church has partnered with Career-Confidence.org since 2015, a few years after its founding by member Robert Brandau in 2009.

○ Making a difference

Supporting our partners

Our financial support helps Career-Confidence.org to provide free seminars and webinars to connect with job seekers across the United States.
