Introduction

Based in Germany, City to City DACH seeks to plant gospel-centered, urban-based, contextualized churches that exist for the good of their community across the German-speaking countries of Europe.

About City to City DACH

Mission and vision

City to City DACH is a part of Redeemer's City to City church planting movement. It works to plant churches in the countries that claim German as a national language: Germany, Austria, and Switzerland. Its mission is to renew cities in the region through the gospel.

Partnering to share the good news 2004 – present

Our church family has supported German church planters since 2004. Our initial affiliation began in 2004 with the Berlin Project. Now, we partner with the general DACH organization. Beginning in July of 2024, our church will support church plants in Dortmund and Magdeburg.
