HOW YOU CAN GET INVOLVED

PRAY

- For the health and safety of ministry leaders and volunteers, who serve in high-risk and dangerous areas.
- For the Lord to provide biblical churches to partner with ministry leaders and disciple people in their communities.
- For freedom for those held in physical and spiritual bondage by addiction, poverty, violence, and sin and for hearts to be open to the gospel.
- For provision for practical needs such as like-minded people, meeting places food for children, Bibles, and equipment for job training programs.

GIVE

- Considering giving directly to Oakseed Ministries at their website.

GO

- Talk to our Director of Mission, Matt Stone, about the next opportunity to serve.

SEND

- If you are unable to personally GO, contact us about how you can help SEND a future mission team from our church to visit this partner.

Introduction

Founded in 1992 by church member Ed Bradley, Oakseed assists indigenous ministries that bring the gospel to abandoned children and the poor in the mega-cities of the developing world. Oakseed also seeks to educate the church about prayer and the needs of the urban poor. Currently, the organization supports 25 indigenous ministries worldwide through prayer, funding, counsel, and training; these ministries impact approximately 300,000 people each week.

About Oakseed Ministries

Mission and vision

The mission of Oakseed Ministries international is to support indigenous ministries that share the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ and minister to the needs of the world's poorest and most neglected urban communities.

Partnering to share the good news 1994 – present

Our church has partnered with Oakseed since 1994.

Making a difference

Supporting our partners

Our donations are distributed by Oakseed to its 25 different indigenous ministry partners in 15 different countries, aiming to provide vital financial support without creating dependency.
