HOW YOU CAN GET INVOLVED

PRAY

- For the students and faculty at RTS DC to be faithful to the calling God has placed on their lives.
- That students would be equipped to engage with God's work in this world.
- For the Lord to bless the work of RTS and use it to build his church.

GIVE

- Consider giving directly to RTS (DC) on their website.

SERVE

- Talk to church member and RTS executive assistant Stephanie DiMaria about opportunities to get involved.

Introduction

RTS (Washington, DC) offers rigorous academic programs designed to provide pastoral and theological training to those who would serve Jesus Christ in different contexts around the world as ministers, missionaries, scholars, and lay leadership.

About RTS DC

○ Mission and vision

The Washington campus of Reformed Theological Seminary (RTS) is committed to providing faithful, confessional and theological training to those who would serve Jesus Christ in different contexts around the world as ministers, missionaries, scholars, and lay leaders.

○ Partnering to share the good news 1995 - present

Our church has partnered with RTS DC since its inception in 1995. RTS DC hosted its first classes onsite at our church and holds its graduation ceremony at McLean Presbyterian Church every year.

○ Making a difference

Supporting our partners

Our financial support helps RTS (DC) train future pastors and lay leaders to make disciples in our area and beyond.
