HOW YOU CAN GET INVOLVED

PRAY

- Please pray for the Spirit to prepare the hearts of those whom Matthew and his team meet with so that they would receive and respond to the gospel.
- Pray for wisdom for Matthew and his team as the ministry continues to grow on the campus.
- Forming a community can be difficult in a cross-cultural ministry context, please pray for genuine connection amongst those that RUF-I serves.

GIVE

- Support the DeLongs on a monthly or one-time basis by donating on their website.

SERVE

- Reach out to Matthew about sponsoring a college student and helping to meet the physical needs of students who are a long way from home.
- Nearly 70% of international students will never step foot in an American home during their time in college. Reach out to Matt about hosting himself and his group of students for dinner at your house!

Introduction:

Reformed University Fellowship International (RUF-I) is a college campus ministry that brings the gospel to international students at George Mason University.

About: RUF International

Mission and vision

Est. 2018

RUF-I seeks to reflect God's grace to the international community at George Mason University and exists to welcome scholars from all nations and encourage them to explore the way of Jesus Christ.

Partnering to share the good news

2018 – present

We began partnering with Matthew DeLong in 2018 when he and his wife launched the ministry at George Mason University.

Making a difference

Supporting our partners

Our financial contribution supports Matthew and his family as they seek to share the gospel with college students.
