Core Questions

1. In 5:22-23, Moses questioned why God sent him to Egypt. How does the rest of the passage begin to show God's plan for Moses and for his people?
2. How can the situations of our lives crowd out a faithful vision of who God is? How does Exodus 6:2-8 help to battle that temptation?
3. How do God's actions towards Pharaoh teach us about God's deliverance and his judgement?

Inward Grace in Action

4. Have you ever felt that God has forgotten you? What comfort does this passage offer to remind you of God's covenant care for his people?

Outward Grace in Action

5. All throughout the Scripture God teaches us who he is. Read the verse below. This week, how could a profound vision of God encourage us as his witnesses?

"This is what the Lord says— Israel's King and Redeemer, the Lord Almighty: I am the first and I am the last; apart from me there is no God. Who then is like me? Let him proclaim it. Let him declare and lay out before me what has happened since I established my ancient people, and what is yet to come— yes, let them foretell what will come. Do not tremble, do not be afraid. Did I not proclaim this and foretell it long ago? You are my witnesses. Is there any God besides me? No, there is no other Rock; I know not one.
Isaiah 44:6-8
