Core Questions

1. Verses 10-18 highlight the harmful nature of our words. How aware are you of how you speak about others and yourself?
2. The “but now” of verse 21 is the turning point of Romans 3. From the passage, what is this new hope we have through Christ?

Inward Grace in Action

3. God’s delight in us is more than we could ever expect to deserve. How does this change our lives? How can you lean further into this good news.
4. Read the quote below. How is God’s grace the motivation to endure and “press forward” in the Christian life?

Outward Grace in Action

5. How can you brag about Christ in your day-to-day life? How can this be done in a way that points people to Christ, rather than yourself?

Here is grace for the weariness – grace which lifts us up and invigorates us; grace which keeps us from fainting by the way; grace which supplies us with manna from heaven, and with water from the smitten rock. We receive of this grace, and are revived. Our weariness of heart and limb departs. We need no other refreshment. This is enough. Whatever the way be – rough, gloomy, unpleasant – we press forward, knowing that the same grace that has already carried thousands through will do the same for us. - Horatius Bonar
