Pray: Pray for your group to delight more in God's law each day.

Core Questions

1. How can you cultivate a daily meditation on God's law like the psalmist describes, especially amid distractions and busyness? What practical steps can you take that God's commandments shape your wisdom and understanding?
2. Psalm 119 shapes our hearts to love God's law. Read through the 10 commandments in Exodus 20 and talk about which of these feel most hard to delight in.

Inward Grace in Action

3. What emotions does God's Law cause you to feel? Why is it significant to begin a series on the Ten Commandments with this passage from Psalm 119?
4. Read the quote below. How does God's Word shape our hearts to help us believe that God's law leads to our good.

Outward Grace in Action

5. As we begin this series on the Ten Commandments, how can your obedience to God's law be a testimony to his grace and faithfulness?

Teach me to be resigned to thy will, to delight in thy law, to have no will but thine, to believe that everything thou doest is for my good.
