Sermon in a sentence summary
Our conversations and our calendars reveal our pride and our need for Christ.

How else might you summarize the sermon?

Reflect and Discuss

1. Why is it important for Christians to pay careful attention to what we say about other people and how we make plans?

2. What does "judging your neighbor" reveal about your heart?

3. Why does James use our finiteness (you are mist) as an antidote to arrogant planning? How might you apply this to your life?

Respond

1. What are some specific ways that you can grow in humility regarding your conversations and your calendar?

2. How can we as a community cultivate a spirit of humility with one another?
